Dear Author:

Under U.S. copyright law the transfer of copyright from the author needs to be explicitly stated in writing to enable the publisher to publish and disseminate the author's work to the fullest extent. Therefore, this Agreement must be signed and returned to us before we can process your manuscript.

Copyright Transfer Agreement

The undersigned author has submitted a manuscript entitled _____
_____ (the "Work")
for publication in _____ (the "Journal") published by John Wiley & Sons, Inc.

- A. The author transfers to John Wiley & Sons, Inc. (the "Publisher") during the full term of copyright, the exclusive rights comprised in the copyright of the Work, including but not limited to the right to publish the Work and the material contained therein throughout the world, in all languages, and in all media of expression now known or later developed, and to license or permit others to do so.
- B. Notwithstanding the above, the author retains the following:
1. Proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent rights.
 2. The right to make copies of all or part of the Work for the author's use in classroom teaching.
 3. The right to use, after publication, all or part of the Work in a book by the author, or a collection of the author's work.
 4. The right to make copies of the Work for internal distribution within the institution which employs the author.
 5. The right to use figures and tables from the Work, and up to 250 words of text, for any purpose.
 6. The right to make oral presentations of material from the Work.

The author agrees that all copies made under any of the above conditions will include a notice of copyright and a citation to the Journal.

- C. In the case of a Work prepared under U.S. Government contract, the U.S. Government may reproduce, royalty-free, all or portions of the Work and may authorize others to do so, for official U.S. Government purposes only, if the U.S. Government contract so requires. A copy of the contract must be attached.
- D. If the Work was written as a work made for hire in the course of employment, the Work is owned by the company/employer which must sign this Agreement in the space provided below. In such case, the Publisher hereby licenses back to such employer the right to use the Work internally or for promotional purposes only.
- E. The author represents that the Work is the author's original work. If the Work was prepared jointly, the author agrees to inform the co-authors of the terms of this Agreement and to obtain their permission to sign on their behalf. The Work is submitted only to this Journal, and has not been published before. (If excerpts from copyrighted works are included, the author will obtain written permission from the copyright owners and show credit to the sources in the Work.) The author also represents that, to the best of his or her knowledge, the Work contains no libelous or unlawful statements, does not infringe on the rights of others, or contain material or instructions that might cause harm or injury.

Note to U.S. Government Employees

A Work prepared by a U.S. federal government employee as part of his/her official duties is called a "U.S. Government work," and is in the public domain in the United States; in such case, Paragraph A above applies only outside the United States. Please attach a copy of any applicable policy of the author's agency.

If the Work was prepared jointly, and any co-author is not a U.S. government employee, it is not a U.S. Government work. That co-author should be delegated by the other co-authors to sign this Agreement. If the Work was not prepared as part of the employee's duties, it is not a U.S. Government work.
